In keeping with the requirements of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 in regard to sex discrimination and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 in regard to handicap discrimination as well as other applicable federal and state laws, Highland Community College follows a policy of nondiscrimination and equal opportunity in regard to all employment practices and to all educational programs and activities including student financial aid, recruitment, admission, housing, and placement. Inquiries regarding the application of these laws may be submitted to the Title IX, 504 Coordinator in the Administration Building.

Federal law prohibits Highland Community College from making inquiries regarding disability or medical condition prior to admission. Information regarding disabilities or medical conditions, voluntarily given or inadvertently received, will not affect any admissions decision. However, if you would, upon admission and acceptance, require special services, you may notify the Vice President of Student Services. This voluntary self-identification allows HCC to prepare for the effective delivery of programs, activities, and services to you. If provided, this information will be kept in strict confidence and will have no effect on your admission to HCC.
