Department:

English

Course Description:

This course provides a survey of the significant writers, works, and developments in English literature from the Nineteenth Century Romantic writers through the Twentieth Century.

Course Competencies:

Upon completion of the course, the student should be able to:

1. Identify the sources of English literature.
2. Outline the history of English literature of the period.
3. Identify the various genres of English literature.
4. Identify the major writers and works of English literature of the period.
5. Explain the unique significance of English literature of the period.
6. Write and revise papers with page format and source documentation in the MLA style.

Course Content:

A. The Romantic Period (1785 - 1830)
B. The Victorian Age (1830 - 1901)
C. Issues in the Victorian Age: Evolution, Industrialism, Women’s Rights
D. The Twentieth Century

Learning Assessments:

Course competencies will be assessed by essay exams, research paper, in-class assignments, quizzes, and homework assignments.

Instructional Materials:

receive services. Documentation must include specific recommendations for accommodation(s). Documentation should be provided in a timely manner prior to or early in the semester so that the requested accommodation can be considered and, if warranted, arranged.

In order to begin the process all students must complete the “Disabilities Self-Identification Form” at this link: https://highlandcc.edu/pages/disability-services.

This form can also be accessed at the Highland Community College homepage under Students Services/Student Resources/Disability Service or by contacting the Disabilities Coordinator.