Department:

Agriculture

Program Description:

The Associate in Applied Science Degree in Agribusiness program is for students who want to work in some aspect of agricultural sales and service. Farm supplies sales could include livestock and poultry feed products, chemicals, fertilizer, seed, insecticide, and equipment. A successful background in sales and service could also lead to management positions at agricultural products plants, corporate divisions, or retail operations.

Required Courses:

Basic Skills (12 credits)
- ENG 101 Composition I (3)
- ENG 102/103 Composition II (3) OR SP 106 Public Speaking (3) OR SP 101 Oral Com. (3)
- AB 114 Agriculture Orientation (2)
- Open Physical Education Elective (1)
- AB 227 Agriculture Microcomputer (3)

Humanities and Fine Arts (3 credits)
- Elective

Social & Behavioral Science (3 credits)
- Elective

Mathematics or Science (3 credits)
- Elective

Degree Requirements (26 credits)
- AB 108 Principles of Animal Science (3)
- AB 202 Agriculture Economics I (3)
- AB 203 Soil Science with lab (4)
- AB 207 Fund. of Animal Nutrition (3)
- AB 208 Applied Animal Nutrition (3)
- AB 210 Crop Science with lab (4)
- AB 216 Farm Marketing (3)
- BUS 116 Introduction to Accounting (3)

Degree Electives (4 credits)
- AB 220 Beef Production (3)
- AB 224 Range Management (3)
- AB 225 Animal Diseases and Health (3)

Open Electives (12 credits)

To see a course description and syllabus, click here.
To search for a class to see when it is scheduled, click here.