3rd Annual Etiquette Dinner

The Third Annual Etiquette Dinner was held on Nov 12, 2014, at the Klinefelter Farm. It was a very cold evening, but the weather held out for us and we were all able to stay warm and cozy in the barn. Throughout the dinner, Vanetta Geiger gave an expert presentation on Dining Etiquette to our audience that included SSS students and staff, community members, and President Reist. Community members provided the table settings and acted as table hosts offering conversation and pointers to the students seated with them. The meal, catered by Sisters' Country Cookin', included salad, a choice of chicken or pork, potatoes, and green beans. Homemade desserts were provided by community members. Students learned how to navigate a myriad of social situations at a formal dinner and everyone enjoyed the good conver-
